Top reasons to live on campus in Spring 2014

- Community: You get more involved in campus life by living on campus and participating in activities offered exclusively for resident students. Tutoring, workshops, special programs and much more is available to help you be successful at UC Merced.

- Safety: Professional and student staff members, in addition to the campus police, are available 24-hours a day, seven days a week to assist residents.

- Fun: Living on campus can be one of your most rewarding college experiences.

- Proximity: Living minutes from your classes, the library, faculty members, study groups, the Joseph Edward Gallo Recreation and Wellness Center is a huge advantage. Don't worry about parking. Save time and reduce your carbon footprint.

- Success: Research shows that students do better academically if they live on campus.

- Diversity: You can experience the amazing diversity of UC Merced's residential community and make friends with students from different cultures and other regions of the U.S. – or even make a new friend from your hometown.

- Convenient: You pay one bill, one time – and it's over and done!

---

What will it cost for Spring 2014?

Room rates
- Quad and designed triple: $4,830 (four or three students per bedroom)
- Triple: $4,156 (three students per bedroom)
- Double: $5,160 (two students per bedroom)
- Single: $6,104 (single occupancy)

Spring 2014 housing will be honored as space becomes available. TWO STEPS: Apply online and then pay the $300 reservation fee to be considered.

To apply for Spring 2014

New students must SIR before being eligible to apply for on-campus housing.
1. Submit your SIR and wait 24 hours, then go to “Apply for Housing” link at housing.ucmerced.edu.
2. Complete the online housing application.
3. Pay your $300 reservation fee (required to be considered).

Important Dates

- November 4: Online application available at housing.ucmerced.edu ($300 reservation fee required)
- January 13: Room assignment information sent via your UC Merced email account
- January 19: Halls open at 10 a.m. for move in
- January 21: Classes begin

Select a meal plan
- C $2,378
- A $1,978
- T $1,478

FOR MORE INFORMATION: housing.ucmerced.edu